

SUNDAY ARVO FUN AT CRAWFORD HOUSE MUSEUM

Sunday 5th May
Getting to know your Grandparents

This event will be held for primary school children and their parents which ties in with a component of the curriculum for third class.

The child and the parent will go away with a series of questions to ask grandparents to get to know what their life was like growing up.

A tour through the Museum will help them understand better how their grandparents lived.

This will be conducted by Margaret Ryan and Ian Kirkland.

Cost $10 for a Year 3-6 child accompanied by a parent includes the talk, afternoon tea and a tour of the museum
